

Democratic Announcements FOR STATE OFFICES

For Lieut. Governor
GEO. BELLAMY.

For Treasurer
JAMES MENEFEE

For Congress, 2nd Dist.—
GEO. E. BLACK.

The newspapers, which are the keenest students of human nature are giving a great deal of space to the Thaw murder trial. The facts, as we all know, are that a reputable middle-aged business man, the father of a family, was shot down in cold blood by a moral pervert whose degeneracy has become more and more pronounced every year by living in luxury that he had no part in creating. There is an unclean side to this affair, that is expected to develop in the trial, therefore we are to have columns on columns of details. The hardest satires on the reading public are the unconscious ones, such as these the newspapers would never give space to unsavory stuff, nor the theatres to plays built upon moral problems if there was not money in it.
